

Lauren is a qualified Teacher and has a PGCE specialising in Early Years education. She has been teaching for 5 years and has previously worked in mainstream schools across West Sussex. Lauren has previous experience teaching vertically grouped classes of Reception, Year 1 and Year 2, as well as Early Years and Key Stage 1 Leadership. She has also undertaken relevant Montessori training at the Montessori Centre International. Lauren discovered her passion for teaching during her experience of 5 summers participating in Camp America. She gained a BA (Hons) degree in Journalism and developed an interest in photography and writing short stories for children. In her spare time she enjoys country walks with her sausage dog, camping, yoga and travelling to new places.

Reflections Small School

Georgia is the Atelierista/ Teacher in Reflections Small School. She graduated in Fine Art Photography at the University of Gloucestershire in 2012 after completing a Foundation Diploma at the Chelsea College of Arts and Design. Following her degree she worked part-time as an Art Technician in a London secondary school supporting a department of six art teachers and running the school's photographic dark room. In addition to this she managed an art studio in Brick Lane arranging evening art classes for adults, and helped to run an after-school art workshop for local primary school children. She has a PGCE with Art Specialism from Exeter University, gained Qualified Teacher Status in 2014, and completed her NQT year as a Year 4 Teacher in London. She attended the a Study Tour in Reggio Emilia in 2105 which greatly inspired her career.

Georgia worked as an Atelierista in two London nurseries before taking up the role of Atelierista at Reflections in 2016. She published the book 'From Space to Space' in collaboration with the Toddler Atelierista, Laura Brannon. Following this she progressed to the Small School when it opened in 2017. In her spare time Georgia continues to work on her own practice, specialising in painting, ceramics, textiles and photography. She also enjoys playing tennis, squash, bouldering and practicing yoga.
